

Onboarding Session I: Context

 These questions will help me craft the applying materials in a way that presents you best.

- Bullet points, short answers are acceptable. The Javascript blocks are purely aesthetic.

Career Narrative

| How you got here and how you see your work

▼ Open Prompts

Bring me up to date on your full career, how did we get here? Include everything, even the random jobs you worked for a week during the summer.

You say you love your job, contextualize it for me. Why?

If someone at a dinner party asked what you do, how would you explain it?

What is the best job you've ever had and what made it great?

What are you unusually good at?

How You Think

Patterns, principles, and instincts

▼ Open Prompts

Are there any ideas, quotes or principles you come back to? Some examples to get the gears moving:

"The opposite of love is not hate, it is indifference."

"Everything in life is simple, yet nothing is easy."

"If you want a question answered on the Internet, post a wrong answer first."

"Sometimes, magic is just someone spending more time on something than anyone else might reasonably expect."

Tell me about a book or movie you have seen more than once.

What do you tend to optimize for instinctively?

When something breaks, where do you look first?

Perspective & Differentiation

| What doesn't show up on a resume

▼ Open Prompts

What's the biggest misconception people have about you at work?

What's something you're better at than your resume currently shows?

What's one interesting or non-obvious thing about you that doesn't usually come up professionally?

If your company gave you a one-year paid sabbatical, how would you spend it?

(This is less about fantasy, more about motivation and direction.)

What do you notice first when you enter a new system or organization?